

ETS Nigeria 2018 Activities Overview

January - November 2018

Since its activation in November 2016, the Emergency Telecommunications Sector has been providing shared communications services to humanitarians in North-East Nigeria. These services enable a more efficient and safer humanitarian response in areas with limited or unavailable services from local communications service providers.

Bama
Damasak
Dikwa
Gwoza
Maiduguri
Monguno
Ngala
Banki
Rann

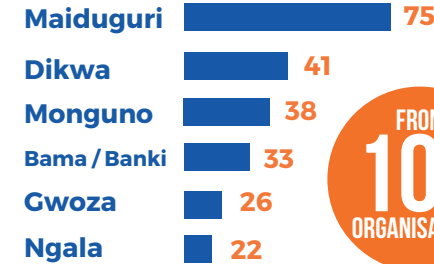

Damaturu
Geidam

Madagali
Yola

Borno
Yobe
Adamawa

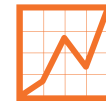

INTERNET USERS
average number of daily users

FROM 103 ORGANISATIONS

450+ humanitarians from 30 organisations trained on radio standards procedures

INFORMATION MANAGEMENT

60+ Information Management products (maps, SitReps, factsheets, meeting minutes)

66

registered devices from WFP, UNICEF and WHO under the coverage provided by the ETS to enable Push-To-Talk satellite-based voice communications

DMR PROJECT

Enhancing the security telecommunications network in Maiduguri and Damaturu with advanced digital (DMR) features

FUNDING NEEDS

US$5.5MILLION

44% of the total ETS funding needs has been covered.

US$3.08M

The ETS is appealing for the remaining US$3.9 million required to carry out its project until the end of 2018

PARTNERS AND DONORS SUPPORTING THE ETS OPERATION

The ETS in Nigeria is led by World Food Programme

www.etcluster.org/emergencies/nigeria-crisis
Nigeria.ETS@wfp.org

This infographic was produced with data available as of 14 December 2018